

Internet use policy

Southwest University of Visual Arts (SUVA) provides access to the Internet to enhance the information and learning opportunities for our students, faculty and staff. This policy has been established to ensure appropriate and effective use of this resource. Access to the Internet is provided for all users; however, use not consistent with the guidelines can and will result in restricted access to the Internet. All students must sign the Internet Use Agreement.

Expectations

The inappropriate use of electronic information resources can be a violation of local, state and federal laws and can lead to prosecution. Users will be held responsible for their actions while using the Internet at Southwest University of Visual Arts. Users must abide by the policies agreed to on the signed internet use policy statement which include generally accepted rules of network etiquette. Unacceptable online behavior will result in the suspension or revocation of Internet use privileges.

Warnings

The Internet is a decentralized, unmoderated global network; Southwest University of Visual Arts has no control over the content found therein and is not responsible for the availability and/or accuracy of information found on the Internet.

The library cannot guarantee that data or files downloaded by users are virus-free. Southwest University of Visual Arts is not responsible for damages to equipment or data on users' personal computers from the use of data downloaded from Southwest University of Visual Arts Internet service.