

Notice of Availability of Institutional and Financial Aid Information to Enrolled Students

In compliance with federal law, Southwest University of Visual Arts annually distributes to each enrolled student a notice of the availability of the information that is required to be made available to students under the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) and for Consumer Information under HEA Sec. 485(a)(1), Sec. 485(f), Sec. 485(g), [Sec. 485(h)] and Sec.485(j) and as amended by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (HEOA).

This notice is sent to each student's email address and Southwest University of Visual Arts will supply a paper copy upon request.

The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (HEOA) requires that postsecondary institutions participating in federal student aid programs make certain disclosures to students. The following information is disclosed to you as a student at Southwest University of Visual Arts, in compliance with federal law and other laws.

Privacy of Student Records – Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

Provides information on the federal law that gives students the right to review their educational records, to request amendment of their records, to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information, and to file complaints with the Department of Education.
